

Stewardship

A faith-based school is the perfect environment in which to develop a full appreciation for the gifts given to each of us. Building the desire and confidence to share these gifts is one of our major goals here at Saints Peter & Paul. Our teachers understand the importance of nurturing the talents and abilities of each student and encourage every child to learn from the talents of their classmates and to recognize the value that God places on each one of their unique attributes.

